

Posted: June 26, 2019

JOB POSTING
Course Instructor

HIS414H1F	Down and Out in Medieval Europe
Est. enrolment: 16 Est. TA Support :	Explores the life conditions of individuals on the lower echelons of medieval society (the poor, servants and apprentices, the exiled, prisoners, slaves, foreigners and lepers). In parallel, we will discuss the various conceptions of poverty that prevailed in the Middle Ages. These objectives will allow us to glimpse the European Middle Ages from an unusual angle as well as reflect on important socio-economic and religious changes.
Schedule:	Tuesday 13:00-15:00
Rate of pay:	$8,058.00 (incl. 4% vacation pay)
Dates of Appointment:	September 1, 2019 – December 31, 2019
Duties:	Course preparation, lecturing, marking. There will be 24 hours of lectures in this course and one office hour per teaching week.
Qualification:	We are seeking applicants with proven experience in teaching, proven teaching excellence and mastery of the subject area as related to the course description above. Previous experience in teaching a similar course is highly desirable. Experience in the history of medieval poverty. Previous experience or training with Quercus is an asset.

Applications should be emailed to history.cupe3@utoronto.ca and must include:

- cover letter
- CV
- teaching evaluations
- one letter of reference from your dissertation supervisor, sent directly from him or her

Closing Date: July 18, 2019

Note:

1. Department Standards and Policies are available in the Departmental Office and in the CUPE, Local 3902 office.
2. The position above is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 1 Collective Agreement and is tentative, pending final course determinations and enrolments.
3. Please note that should rates stipulated in the collective agreement vary from rates stated in this posting, the rates stated in the collective agreement shall prevail.