

Dreams in Early Modern England: "Visions of the Night." Routledge, 2017.

Dreams in Early Modern England provides an in-depth exploration of the variety of ways in which early modern people understood and interpreted dreams, from medical explanations to political, religious or supernatural associations. The chapters explore the dream in relation to divination, religious visions, sleep, nightmares and sleep disorders.

Dr. Janine Rivière received her PhD in History from the University of Toronto. She currently teaches in the International Foundation Program at New College and has published widely on the cultural history of dreams and nightmares in early modern England. BOOK LAUNCH Thursday, June 15 4-5pm

New College Ivey Library Main Foyer 20 Willcocks Street, Wilson Hall University of Toronto

Join us for light refreshments

Sponsored by New College International Foundation Program